

OG Tutor

to apply, send letter & resume to thawks@camperdown.org

School Summary

Camperdown Academy is a non-profit organization providing excellence in the education of dyslexic children with a day school for grades one through eight, and training and outreach services provided to teachers and professionals across the region. Specific and specialized teaching approaches are shared through outreach efforts and administered in small group settings with an emphasis on individualized instruction.

Position Summary

This position is for a full-time OG tutor. An Orton-Gillingham tutor targets language-based weaknesses by implementing the OG principles in the areas of reading, spelling, and writing.

Key Responsibilities

- Tutor students in grades 3rd-8th in a 1:1 or 2:1 setting
- Design and deliver OG lessons
- Administer assessments
- Communicate weekly with parents
- Lead parent-teacher conferences

Minimum Position Requirements

- Bachelor's degree
- Orton-Gillingham Academy, Associate-level coursework
- Recommendation of your OG Fellow

Camperdown Academy recruits, hires, and promotes without regard to race, religion, gender, age, disability, marital status, political affiliation, or sexual orientation.