

Camperdown Book Report Organizer

Use these pages to plan your report. Then write or type your paragraph on separate paper.

Remember to include a good illustration on the front (with title, author, and Lexile) and your report on the back.

Topic Sentence: Include the title, author, and genre. Some genres include realistic fiction, historical fiction, science fiction, nonfiction, biography, mystery, and humor.

Setting: Describe the time and place the book happens. Does the book happen during a storm on a farm or during WWII in a town near the coast of Norway or at Halloween in a second grade classroom?

Sentence describing when and where:

Characters: Tell who the book is about. Describe and tell a little about each main person.

Plot: Use several sentences to tell what the characters' main problem is. Then give several sentences to tell some of the things they try in order to solve the problem. Use words like first, next, and then to show the sequence of events.

What is the problem?

What happened first?

Next?

Then?

After that?

Resolution: How was the problem finally solved?

Finally,

Favorite part

I liked when...

Lexile (You can look up the Lexile at <https://lexile.com/search/>)

This book has a Lexile of _____.

Recommendation

I give this book ___ out of ___ stars. I think _____ would like this book because
